LIFELONG LEARNING AND EDUCATION

The Greater Wichita region is home to a world-class workforce supported by educational institutions and training programs, creating a solid foundation for students and ongoing training options for adults. The Greater Wichita Partnership works alongside employers, human resource professionals, and recruiters to accelerate talent attraction and retention while supporting talent development.

Outstanding Area Colleges and Universities

The region features first-class educational experiences from 18 public, private, and technical colleges and universities. More than 100,000 students are prospective workers for area employers.

With the area's high concentration of manufacturing businesses, Wichita has correspondingly strong technical training resources.
