

Grow your business IN GREATER WICHITA

Whether you're an existing business seeking to expand or an external company exploring relocation opportunities, look no further than Greater Wichita. From shovel-ready properties to the nation's number-one skilled workforce and a full range of incentives, the region provides everything your business needs to thrive.

The Greater Wichita Partnership is ready to assist you in a relocation or expansion. Our team can provide the following support:

Specialized Industry Research

- Detailed labor analysis
- Comprehensive demographic and business climate information
- Insight on transportation infrastructure
- Information on utility connections
- Identification and recruitment strategies for potential workforce
- Comparison analysis to other communities

Marketing for Business Attraction

- Analysis of local and state incentive programs*
- Federal, state and local economic incentive program assistance*
- Connection to available commercial real estate listings and sites
- Specialized presentations
- Community promotional materials
- Detailed maps of the region
- Engagement with universities and community colleges

Downtown Development Assistance

- Commercial, retail and hospitality market data
- Housing, apartment and residential data
- Demographic and labor force analysis
- Insight into downtown development and trends
- Community plans and research

Andrew Nave

EVP of Economic Development
andrew@greaterwichitapartnership.org
(316) 500.6659

Connect with me on LinkedIn

Greater Wichita
Partnership

* To qualify for any incentive program or tax abatement, the commitment from the company is typically new capital investment, new job creation and/or increase of employee wages. Companies must execute the incentives applications and complete the approval process before starting any aspect of the project (i.e. hiring, equipment purchasing, site preparation or construction). Learn more by contacting the Greater Wichita Partnership team at (316) 500.6650.

Discover opportunities at greaterwichitapartnership.org